

THE C.G. JUNG INSTITUTE
OF SAN FRANCISCO

Friends of the Institute

COME STEEP YOURSELF IN DREAMS, CULTURE AND MYSTERY

Friends of the Institute is a public arm of The C.G. Jung Institute of San Francisco, open to everyone. Our programs focus on Carl Jung's insights using the lens of culture, art, literature, poetry, music, science and theatre both in our contemporary world and throughout history.

Benefits of $100 annual membership:

- All presentations free
- Access to SF Institute's Library & Symbol Archive (ARAS)
- Opportunity to join Bay Area book groups
- Priority reservations for museum tours
- Subscription to Rhizome newsletter
- Socialize with like-minded people

To join or learn more, scan the QR code or visit: <https://sfjung.org/public-programs/join-friends-of-the-institute/>

"The creative act, being rooted in the immensity of the unconscious, will forever elude our attempt at understanding. It describes itself only in its manifestations. Psychology and aesthetics will always have to turn to one another for help."

C.G. Jung, Collected Works, Vol. 15, para 135

2610 Mission Street | SF, CA 94110
(415) 771-8055 (o) | (415) 771-8926 (f) | www.sfjung.org